

For the Kentucky. 1852.
Meeting of the Friends of the
SOUTH-WESTERN RAILROAD,
At the Tennessee Line.

At a large and respectable meeting of the friends of the South-Western Railroad, at the State line, on the 21st of Oct. 1852. CLAYTON MILLER, Esq., of Kentucky, was called to the chair—Judge A. C. CARR, of Tennessee, and Col. Jos. H. BARNES, of Kentucky, were chosen Vice Presidents of the meeting, and Wm. H. Goodrich, of Tenn., and T. A. Alexander, of Ky., were appointed Secretaries.

Tim Graves, Esq., of Kentucky, and Judge A. C. CARR, of Tenn., were requested to give to the meeting the State of progress of that portion of the South-Western Railroad lying in the respective States of Tennessee and Kentucky.

Whereupon, the gentlemen selected gave a loud and highly encouraging statement of the prospects of the enterprise, both in Kentucky and Tennessee, and gave assurances that the work goes bravely on.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting—Messrs. H. B. HARRIS, of Wm. BARNES, of Tennessee, and Col. M. King, of Kentucky, who after having retired for a short time, presented to the meeting the following:

The South Western Railroad from Danville, Kentucky, to McMinnville, Tennessee, as a rapid, cheap and constant mode of transportation, trade and travel, will augment the value of exported products, and diminish the cost of imported necessities, comforts and luxuries, and will extend the social and business relations of the North and South. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will untiringly and individually exert our energy and forth all our ability to secure the early and successful completion of this enterprise.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Danville Tribune and State Times, and all other papers friendly to the enterprise.

Mr. J. Caldwell then addressed the meeting in a forcible and happy manner, urging the necessity of united and prompt action.

Mr. Wm. M. BARNES being called for, addressed the meeting at some length, giving an account of the enterprise in Tennessee and urging upon Kentuckians to leave nothing undone to secure the speedy completion of the road.

After which, the meeting adjourned sine die.

CLAYTON MILLER, Pres't.
W. H. GOODRICH,
T. A. ALEXANDER,
Secretaries.

CUBA.

Our relations with Cuba bear a threat.

Of late items of news we notice the following:

The present City will not be allowed to remain the harbor of Havana, if William Smith, the pursuer, is abroad.

The authorities at Havana seized the letter bag of the bark Cornelia, when under way for New York, and opened the letters, and several who were compromised by their contents had been arrested, and some persons who were secreted aboard attempting to leave without a passport were made prisoners and taken ashore.

The authorities at Havana seem determined to push matters to extremes.

Correspondence in London.

New York, Oct. 6.

The Crescent City is coming up. She arrived at Havana last Sunday, but was forbidden all communication with the shore, and ordered out forthwith. Capt. Porter made a formal protest, but the resistance was unavailing, and the steamer had to put to sea in a violent gale. She brings all the Havana passengers and the mails. The pretext for the outrage was that Porter Smith was aboard.

Work! Work! Work!—There is no excuse without labor, is a true and true saying. So in the political field—We cannot succeed except by working. Democracy, work! work!

Ind. Mailman.

Oh yes, Democrats, work! work! work! Keep working all the time. Work all day, and just as you are going to bed, drink each half a gallon of fermenting beer so that you may work even in your sleep.—Ind. Jour.

VERY RICH.—A correspondent at

Barksville, Kentucky, says:

Mr. Editor:—I think the following too good to be lost. A staunch Democrat in this neighborhood, during the Mexican war, was called upon to pray at a regular church meeting, upon which he perpetrated the usual form upon such occasions, with this addition: "Oh Lord, be with our army in Mexico, whether it be right or whether it be wrong; bless it. We of the Democratic party are charged with making a war for conquest; but we believe it to be a war of defense. But, oh, Lord, we would not enter into an argument of the subject before you, but for further particulars, would refer you to the President's Message."

This has brought to my mind, by hearing the same brother, before an Association, a few days since make the following speech:

"I would urge upon you, brethren, the taking of the Western Recorder," meaning to delegation from a church in Tennessee—"and you, brethren, ought to take it, too, as the interests of the Church in Kentucky and Tennessee are very closely allied, and will become much more so upon the completion of the Danville and McMinnville railroad, which I pray God will not be long as I have about fifteen thousand dollars involved in that enterprise."—*Wes. The editor of the Southern Democrat offers us a bet upon Pierce's election. We are his betters but shan't bet.

Letter from 'old Stone-hammer.'

We are permitted to publish the following excellent letter from Ex-Governor METCALFE, in reply to an invitation to be present at the Whig Mass Meeting to be held in this county on the 25th. It will be seen that the noble old man will honor us with his presence on that occasion. Every Whig in the county, and as many as possible from the adjoining counties, should be present to greet him, for he has always been one of the "wheel-horses" of the great Whig team.

FOREST RECREAT, Ky., Oct. 10, '52.
W. C. ANDERSON, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—In acknowledging the receipt of your favor of the 7th inst., inviting me to be present with them on the 25th inst., at their great mass-meeting to be held on that day, I have the pleasure of accepting that invitation, and, if health and strength permit, I will certainly do my best to be one of your patriotic number on that occasion. To be one of your number is the most that I can promise. Treading, as I now do, on the confines of another world—my physical powers fast waning to ultimate extinction, how do I know but what the same may be said of my intellectual powers?

"Know thyself," is a precept worthy of the source from which it emanated—a precept, however, which I know not how to follow, even in my best days. My Whig friends will, then, doubtless excuse me from any attempt to make a public speech on that occasion. For, relying upon it that nothing that I can utter will have the least influence in convincing a sturdy self-styled Democrat of his errors. On the contrary, the simple declaration that the "old fellow" is in his "dough," will be amply sufficient to refute all his declamations and all his arguments, no matter how unanswerable they may be.

As a proof of what I say, allow me to relate an occurrence which took place at the last Convention held by the Whigs for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and U. S. Gov. Being called upon for a speech, I proceeded accordingly. At the outset, I gave in the Democracy full credit for all their good deeds—few and far between, "his true—and whilst I was right eloquently employed, as I thought, in this act of justice somewhat overbrought, an impetuous Democrat, sneaking his head in the window, and uttering a brother Whig of distinction, said to him: "Do you hear that? There is blue sky for you! The fact is, that I always liked the old fellow for his cleverness and liberality." With these remarks, my Whig friend was not a little delighted, thinking that language had an ameliorating effect on the mind of the Democrat. So, after I began to put up the Whig account, when my Democratic friend perceived that a heavy balance would be made to appear against the Democracy, exclaimed: "What the d— has got into the old fellow now?—he must be getting in his dough!"

But, dropping all anecdote, I will be up and doing to the best. When I can no longer occupy the front rank, and cry out, "Come on, boys!" I will nevertheless pat upon the backs the brave and patriotic young men of my country with the never-fading cry—Go on, gallant youths, go on! The banner borne by the noble Scott never trails in the dust. It is the banner of your country in all its glory!

Tennessee!—gallant and patriotic Tennessee!—I trust has but few better friends at this perilous crisis. Kentucky none! At this "house of Kentucky" have any "would-be" seceder, ready to leave the flock because he is not allowed, to lead, not him as one from our midst, who sooner the better for he is not worthy to be one of us, and is barely fit to be one of the meanest in the ranks of this new-fangled Democracy.

Bayard!—independent, far-landed and patriotic Bayard!—none of thy sons, I am quite sure, will, at such a crisis as this, but from his Whig brethren! To do so, would be to turn thy back upon the Republic, and to all the glories that await you and your posterity if that Republic is sustained in its purity.

Most respectfully, &c.,
THOMAS METCALFE.

AN INCIDENT IN MEXICO.—The following incident told by Gov. LETCHER, is too good to be lost. We copy from the Courier, (Ky.) Mirror, an independent paper:

Having some business in the Supreme Court of Mexico, I went one morning to the Court-room. I was received as the American Minister, and was invited to take a seat upon the bench with the Court, which was composed of eight Judges.

The Chief Justice was a man of wit, and the following passed between us:

C. J.—This is a very fine room.

Gov.—Very, indeed, [and truly it was.]

C. J.—Well adapted for a Court-room.

Gov.—Yes, very wisely arranged.

C. J.—Yes, and this room has some distinction.

Gov.—Ah! In what respect?

C. J.—Why, sir, this is the room in which Gen. Scott was tried.

C. J.—Yes, sir, General Scott was tried in this room.

Gov.—Why, what for?

C. J.—Ah, that is what our Mexicans have never been able to find out.

Life in New York.—The New York Journal of Commerce of Saturday week, has the following paragraph:

Worse and worse.—Already this week there have been eight cases of murder, homicide, or deadly assault in this city, by the knife, the pistol or brutal violence, and three of the sufferers are already dead! A gentleman was twice fired at in Broadway, yesterday morning, at four o'clock, and the bone of his arm was badly shattered.

The Toledo Blade tells the story of a chap on their road, who, apprehending a collision of the cars, put his life preserver on, blew it up, and leaning his back against the side of the car, resigned himself to his fate!

The editor of the Southern Democrat offers us a bet upon Pierce's election. We are his betters but shan't bet.

*Votes by the Legislature.

Gen. Pierce's biographers boast that when he was just out of college, being asked by his father how in spell 'th, he promptly answered "but." Now we should like to know how the young collegian could know from the sound of the word whether the old gentleman meant "but" or "bait." Evidently the young fellow wasn't aware of there being more than one way to spell the word. So we don't think that his education was anything very remarkable after all.

Lon. Journal,

Try him by their own States.

Who is the favorite of the Free-Soilers?—The Democratic organs, from their Congressional stump-down to their county elections, rag-tag and bobtail, editors, from Ball and Tige to "Travel, Blanche and Sweetheart"—little dogs and all"—throughout the entire South urge against Gen. Scott that he is the Free-Soilers favorite—and some of the less decent—our neighbor of the Poughlough, for instance—actually accuse him of being an abolitionist. The following list shows how the leaders of the Free-soil party are divided between the two candidates for the Presidency:

For Scott. For Pierce.

W. H. SEWARD, M. VAN BUREN,

W. L. GRIFFIN, J. VAN BUREN,

GOV. JOHNSON, JNO. A. DIN,

PRESTON KING,

B. F. HALETT,

B. F. BUTLER,

DAVID WILCOX,

THOS. W. DORR,

W. J. BROWN,

H. HAMILIN,

JOHN ATWOOD,

MOSES NORRIS,

C. CLEVELAND,

N. Y. LIVE POST,

PLAIN DEALER.

In the first column, says the Memphis Enquirer, are the three terrible fellows whose demagogic influence has formed the staple of every anti-South speech which has been made in the South since the canvass opened. They are the gorgon heads with which party politicians have hoped to frighten the Southern people from the support of the brave old men who fought their battles when half of them were too young to fight for themselves. These three constitute the mighty influence which is to control Gen. Scott—an old soldier who has, for forty years, and upwards, been controlling others!—and devastate the fifteen Southern States.

They are three!

But look in the other column, if you wish to find the real "head devil" of this sinister influence. First on the list is Martin Van Buren—the betrayer of the South—the candidate of the Abolitionists and Free-soilers in 1848—the Master Magician—the embodiment of all that is cunning, trickery, insincerity, and selfish in politics. He don't go for Scott!

He's for Pierce! The most prominent, as he is by far the ablest, advocate in the North. And there's his son John—

"John John," as they call him—a regular "chump of the knock"—betrayer of abolition and anti-slavery feeling, having the South with a cordial hand for having thrown his revered father overboard in 1844, shrewd, active, and cunning as Lucifer himself—he, too, goes for Pierce, and is dead on against Scott. Then there's David Wilcox, the man whose hand first lighted this torch of perjury and anti-slavery in Congress; and H. K. and King, and a whole lot of others whose breath kindled it into a conflagration which threatened to destroy the Union—they all go for Pierce, and against Scott.

Why? Because—as their brother Free-soiler, Colonel Haynes, said at the Poughlough Convention—"THEY KNOW THEIR MAN." Because they know he despises slavery, and has a most reviling feeling at the giving up of a slave? Because they know that, born and raised in the bigoted atmosphere of New Hampshire, his prejudices and sympathies are sectional and in harmony with their own hostile feelings towards the South; and that Gen. Scott, a Virginian by birth and by profession, long habit, and patriotic reflection—a citizen of the Union, has no such narrow sectional feelings.

Look at the two lists—examine and scrutinize the names and the history of the men—compare the weight of influence on one side and the other, and then say, if weighed in their own scales, Gen. Pierce is not found wanting.

REMEMBER.
That the Presidential election is to be held on Tuesday, the second day of November, and continues but a single day. The polls open at six o'clock in the morning and close at seven in the evening.

ADDRESS OF THE WHIG CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—We trust every Whig in the State will read the following address and carry out the suggestions advanced in it:

TO THE WHIGS OF KENTUCKY.

You are in the midst of an important and fiercely contested Presidential canvass. The great principles of conservative free government, so dear to every American Whig, are assailed with redoubled energy. In former Presidential contests you have battled zealously for the success of your cherished principles, and victory has uniformly crowned the Whig banner of Kentucky. Now, as heretofore, we have an abiding confidence in the truth of our principles, the justice of our cause, and the superior merits of our chosen leaders, Scott and Graham.

We urge upon our friends in the different counties of the State to give their immediate attention to the all-important duty of organization. Let every Whig regard this appeal as addressed to himself and his family. All have a duty to perform in this respect, and can do something in aid of this object. Day to day the cause and to our candidate demands that all should co-operate in this work of organization.

The signs of the times are auspicious. Every indication, not only in Kentucky, but throughout the Union, is favorable to the success of our candidate. Never had the Whigs more powerful incentives to united action than the present time—never a more encouraging prospect of a complete and reason giving victory. Will you not, one and all, put forth your exertions to secure a glorious result?

W. M. WARD.—It is our duty to bring the voters before the people. Work for the Old Hero who has worked forty years for our country. Keep the standards upon his fair fame, in glowing abroad the glorious flag of his gallant life. Now is the time for active effort, to arouse our friends, as to secure a full turnout of the Whig strength at the polls. Let there be a full vote, and Kentucky will go for Scott and Graham by a very large majority. Bring out all the voters. This once accomplished, and the triumph is ours. Follow Whigs! Lead!

JAMES HARLAN,
A. G. BOGDANS,

FRANKFORT, Oct. 6, 1852.

THAT APPLE.—Mr. JOHN CALDWELL, of this county, presented us a few days since, with one of the finest Apples we have seen this season. We did not weigh it ourselves, but it was said to weigh 1 lb. 3 ounces. Can any of our friends beat it?

THE WEATHER.—The weather has been quite cool and autumn-like during the past few days. There have been several touches of frost.

WE HAVE SEVERAL COMMUNICATIONS on hand, which we are compelled to defer publishing until next week.

CHICKENS.—We have been selling in our city in small quantities for a week or two. They are said to be very abundant this season.

HON. JAS. C. SPRIGG died in Shelby county on the 4th inst. He has several times represented that county in the Legislature, and served one session in Congress.

IT IS SAID that three or four Judges are now constantly employed in New York in granting naturalization papers to foreigners desirous of becoming citizens.

CHANGE OF VENER.—We learn from the last Somerset Gazette, that a change of venue to Laurel county has been granted in the cases of Sarain and Givens, who stand charged with the murder of Mr. Griffin, of this place.

McMINNVILLE RAILROAD.—We learn from a letter received by one of our friends in this place, from an influential citizen of Tennessee, that the McMinnville and Winchester Railroad has been located and put under contract, and the necessary means raised to complete the work. It intersects the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad at Tullahoma, in a direction to connect most advantageously with the Mobile, New Orleans and Memphis Railroads. The letter expresses the most sanguine hopes of making the connection with our road at this place, and concludes by saying: "Come on—we will try and meet you—I purpose striking the first stroke of work at this place with my own hands, with my face towards Danville, and will that no person who prophesies against our success, ever have my tools. Let them pass into the hands of the energetic, who will keep them ever bright."

WE REJOICE to see that our neighbors of Tennessee are animated by the right spirit. Let the friends of the Danville and McMinnville enterprise put their shoulders to the wheel, and co-operate harmoniously, with all their zeal, energy and public spirit, and the great work can and will be accomplished.

THE ELECTION.—Two weeks from Tuesday next, is the election, and with a firm confidence that the Whig party will again be triumphant, we rejoice at the nearness of its approach. The Whigs are gaining strength every day, and by the 21st day of November will be prepared to meet the enemy and that to conquer. We have no doubt of it, whatever. The signs of the times are all in our favor, the skies are bright, and we candidly expect our party to achieve one of the greatest and most glorious political victories of modern times.

The Journal says that from every State where local elections have been held, accounts have been received that may well nerve every Whig soul for the coming contest. The local elections in North Carolina, Maine, Vermont, Delaware, Iowa, and Florida show that we shall carry all those States in the Presidential election, and our belief cannot be shaken that Scott's majority on the 21st of November will not only equal, but surpass the Lincoln party, but surprise and astonish every Whig who has not had a full opportunity of observing the bright and lightning Whig omens that fill the country.

HON. W. P. WARD.—As will be seen by reference to his list of appointments, this gentleman will address his fellow-citizens at this place to-morrow. Mr. Ward is a clear, eloquent, and agreeable speaker, and we trust the people will turn out en masse to hear him.

S. W. RAILROAD.—We publish to day the proceedings of the joint meeting of the friends of the South-western Railroad, held both Tennessee and Kentucky, held at the Tennessee State house. The proceedings will be found very interesting, and of the most cheering character. The friends of the road are at work, and such zeal as they manifest in their efforts, is certainly to be successful.

THE WHIG MASS MEETING.—The meeting of the Whigs to be held in this county on the 25th, is fair to become one of the most interesting held in the State. Ex-Gov. Moore, Hon. R. P. Leach, Hon. C. S. Morrow, Hon. J. B. Thompson, and Hon. J. F. Bell, will certainly be in attendance, with perhaps other distinguished speakers. Let all who can attend, do so. There will be room for all and plenty of provisions.

FIRST GUN FROM FLORIDA.—Whig Victory!—The Whigs have carried the day in Florida, electing both Congressman and Governor. Florida has always been counted over for the Democrats, and the Whigs, though hoping to carry it for Scott, had but little idea of succeeding in the local elections. "The Whig ball is in motion and gathers as it rolls!"

EX-GOVERNOR BRIGGS, of Massachusetts, is taking part in the Whig canvass, after a political silence of 12 years.

IN SEVERAL OF THE STATES which held their election on Tuesday last, contribution boxes, labelled "One dime to the memory of Washington," were at the voting places. It is proposed that at the Presidential election, this system of collection shall be general all over the Union, that the Washington Monument may be completed without further delay. We hope some patriot will see to it at this place. Who would refuse to give a dime to such an object?

DEMOCRATS RALLYING UNDER A BRITISH FLAG.—The Wilmington (Del.) Journal of Tuesday informs us that at a Democratic "mass meeting" held there on Saturday last, the British national flag flew over the platform on which the speakers stood. And under the flag a Democratic orator is reported to have denounced Gen. Scott as a coward and a thief.

THE LACROIX COMPLAINT of the amount of pay received by Gen. Scott from the Government. Why, during Gen. Jackson's administration, Samuel Swartout, his New York collector, stole a million and a quarter of dollars, more than four times as much as ever General Scott received for all his forty years' services.

THE WHIG MASS MEETING AT HARRISBURG, on Monday last, was attended by an immense crowd. Every thing passed off well, and the Whig spirit in all Mercersburg was fully aroused. The meeting was addressed by Col. John S. Williams, of Clark, who, though he spoke about three hours, was listened to with the greatest attention. His speech was one of the very best we have heard during the canvass, and will tell with powerful effect in the increased Whig vote which Mercer county will give in November next.

THE SHELBY FREE PRESS was a neutral paper before the meeting of the Whig national Convention—then hoisted the names of Scott and Graham, and hurled for them with a hearty good will—next it comes out for Pierce and King, the paper, editor and all, having been bought by the democrats of Shelby. Wonder how much the editor got for his principles?

WE WOULD INFORM our neighbor of the Poughkeepsie that we have never said that Gen. Scott failed. We stated that May, Christmas, in his speech at this place made such a charge against the old General, and read such an account of the circumstances, that we rejected he had made the charge. No, sir Gen. Scott has no chicken heart, he would not faint if he could, nor could, if he would. He knows no such words as faint or fail either!

A CONVENTION was held in Knoxville on the 22d ult., for the purpose of adopting measures to secure the construction of a railroad from Danville, Ky., to Knoxville. Strong resolutions were adopted, and a disposition to commence and carry on the enterprise strongly manifested.

THE GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA has convoked the Legislature of that State for the 1st of November to vote for President.

DEAD LETTERS.—During the last quarter, the Post-Office Department announced that they have opened one million and a quarter dead letters—from which the Department obtained over eleven thousand dollars.

ISAAC HILL, one of the Irish prisoners rescued by the firmness of General Scott from British captivity in 1812, is now stamping it in Ohio for his friend of forty years ago.

HON. ROBERT LEWIS, of Ohio, and Hon. James H. Johnson, of Georgia, both able and influential Democrats, have renounced Pierce, and will support Scott and Graham.

HON. TIMOTHY CORRIE.—More than thirty members of the Democratic vigilance Committee of Virginia have left the ranks and declared their intention to support Scott and Graham.

CHINA.—The democrats, after having exhausted their vocabulary at epithets, now accuse Gen. Scott with being a demagogue. This is too much for human endurance, and only very properly he is classed with the unkindness of all.

HOGS.—A few sales for future delivery at Cincinnati at $5.25 net. At St. Louis at $4.50 to $5.00 net and the Louisville Courier states that $5 net is the highest price paid by packers in that vicinity.

MR. CORWIN VISITING.—A despatch from Washington, dated the 5th, says: "The House committee to investigate Mr. Corwin's connection in reference to the Gardner claim, have reported Mr. Corwin blameless."

THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL says that in the fatal duel between Johnson and White, near Lexington, last week, White was the challenging party. A slight misunderstanding had existed between them since last spring. Johnson had made a remark lately disparaging to White's character. This came to White's knowledge who asked Johnson by letter whether he had made the remark attributed to him. Johnson not only acknowledged it, but added that he believed in it. There are substantially the facts.

THE N. Y. EXPRESS says of the rumored new expedition against Cuba, that no good or respectable citizens are engaged in it. A few lazy, loafing, outlawed Crocodiles, and a few burnt speculators in "Cuban Bonds," are the prime movers in the whole affair.

WE NOTICE in many of our exchanges the meaning of the initials F. O. P. We will give our version of the matter.—Montgomery Ad.

FRANKLIN O. PIERCE, of Providence; F. O. P. of Providence; F. O. P. of Providence; F. O. P. of Providence.

THE BEST RESOLUTION adopted by any meeting, at any place, by any party, since the campaign opened, is to be found among those passed at Williamsburg, Pa. It reads thus:

Resolved, THAT WE WILL GO TO WORK, AND CONTINUE UNRESENTINGLY to strive for the success of Whig men and Whig measures until the last cent is polled.

TO WORK and to work unceasingly! That's the magic power that ensures success in all undertakings; and this resolve universally adopted and acted on by the Whigs, would make our victory as certain as sunrise, and as easy as "rolling off a log."

"SHIRTS BRIGHT."—The Whig Cause.—A Washington letter in the N. Y. Times says: "I had the privilege a few days since, of perusing the miscellaneous correspondence of the Whig Executive Committee. It embraces every State in the Union, and from each one the tenor of advice is the same, giving promise of a glorious victory for Scott. The signs of awakening are startling. The United Whig party seems to have been aroused from a deep slumber, by the approach of an unexpected danger, and is all the better prepared to repel it by the strength gathered from long rest. In short, there is no longer any reasonable doubt of Gen. Scott's success, and the conviction that it is assured has seized thousands of Democrats, and paralyzed their efforts. This sufficiently appears from the tone of their papers, and the feebleness of the electoral exertions."

SIGNIFICANT.—At a meeting of the "Free Democracy," held at Fort Montgomery, Orange county, New York, on the 25th ult., the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the only hope of the Northern Democracy, is to follow the noble example of Martin Van Buren, John Van Rensselaer, F. B. Butler, H. B. Stanton, Gilbert D. Mann, and William G. Haynes, and thousands of other Free-soilers, and support Franklin Pierce, as the surest means of effecting a repeal of the fugitive slave law, by giving a Northern man the control of all the important offices of the Government."

LETTER FROM MR. FILLMORE.—A letter from Mr. Fillmore has just appeared in the Columbus (Miss.) Argus, which thus nails another Locofoco slanderer to the counter. By the way, this operation of nailing Locofoco slanders has got to be so common a one—so much a matter of necessary consequence, as to make it scarcely worth while:

WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 7, 1852. Six: Your letter of the 25th ult., is received. You say that it has been rumored since the Whig Convention at Baltimore, that I sent a telegraphic despatch to my friends at the Convention "to go for Webster and save the party," and you desire to know whether this is true. In reply to which I now state that it is not that I made no telegraphic communication during the sitting of the Convention to any member of it, or to any other person for its information.

I AM YOUR OBLIGED SERVANT.
MILLARD FILLMORE.
D. H. LINSLEY, Esq., Houston, Miss.

SPRIT OF THE CANVASS.—Yesterday, and previously, (says the Memphis Enquirer,) we published long lists of bolters from Pierce and King. Our exchanges teem with accounts of disaffection in the Democratic ranks. A general stampede seems to be going on among the Percies in many parts of the country. As it was in the last campaign, so it will be in this. The Whigs do a little "bolting" immediately after the nomination; but as soon as they have time to "blow off" their disappointment, they come back. On the other hand the Democrats appear to be almost unanimous at first; but in a while while the "bolting" among them begins, and goes on increasing as the canvass progresses. From now until the day of the election, we predict that the nothing from the Democratic camp, especially in the South, will be unprecedented in the annals of the country. The biggest "bolting" will be on the second day of November, when Winfield Scott will get a larger majority for President than any candidate has obtained since Harrison.

ELECTION RETURNS.—The returns received thus far from the elections held in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, are meagre, and though they are favorable to the Whigs, we will not hurrah "till we are out of the woods." We expect though to do some tall crowing next week. The following are all we have received.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12, P. M.
In this city Harrison (whig) is elected to Congress from the 21st District by a large majority, and Disney, (Dem.) from the 1st District by a large reduced majority.

HARRISBURG (whig) is elected to the Legislature.

MILLER (whig) has a majority in the city for Board of Public Works.

THE VOTE FOR STERIL is very close, probably Smith (Dem.) is elected.

THE GERMAN WARD all gave majorities for the whigs.

THE VOTES ARE NOT COUNTED, but the above results is conceded by the Democrats.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 12.
Allegheny county—32 districts heard from. McGill, whig, has 30 majority over Kent, Locof. Barker is far behind. Twenty-four districts to hear from.

FAYETTE—Dawson, Democrat, for Congress, 46 majority. In Brownsville borough and district Hoffman 38 maj. Hopkins maj. in Uniontown 5. Woodward 2 maj. Democratic gain of 90.

IN WEST BROWNSVILLE DISTRICT, Hopkins maj. 23. Assemblyman, Democratic majority of 20. Mc Kirtly, Democrat, majority 6. The Democratic sheriff has 13 maj.

DELAWARE.—A telegraphic dispatch from "Little Delaware," of the 7th inst., says: "The returns from the State for Inspectors show a Whig majority in the State of 26, making the Whig gain since last year 200 votes."

THE SECTION OF THE NEW POTTER'S FIELD, near Cincinnati, on Thursday, killed an Irishman who was opening a grave. The man was employed by one of the Medical Colleges.

We copy the following from the Louisville Journal of Monday.

Locofoco Nomination for Congress.—Contrary to the advice of the two Democratic papers in this city, the Salons held a district convention at Lagrange on Saturday, and nominated a candidate for Congress. The nominee is Mr. Calvin Sanders. We do not know the gentleman, but understand that he is a respectable citizen of Shelby, and has filled the office of door-keeper in the Kentucky Senate.

A NEW AND VALUABLE WORK.—We take pleasure in re-publishing the following notice from the Louisville Journal, of a new and valuable Theological work from the pen of the Rev. Dr. Bright, of that city. The former publications of Dr. Bright have already given him an eminence as a writer which render it unnecessary to further recommend his new work. Morion & Griswold, publishers, Louisville, Ky.

MESSRS EDITORS.—A short time since, I saw in your valuable paper a brief notice of Dr. Bright's Essay on God and the Angels, Man, Nature and the Devil. I have read that work with some attention, and am prepared to say it is worth a careful perusal. The Doctor has entered fully and fairly into the whys and wherefores of the subjects upon which he has treated. He has certainly more clearly defined the Philosophy of Theology and Psychology than any author I have hitherto read. His proofs are clear and conclusive. He has taken high, and to a considerable extent, new grounds, disregarding the old track of the schoolmen; yet with all his independence, we think he has well sustained himself. On nature and her laws, he is clear and satisfactory. His views both of the general and moral government of God are well sustained. The duty of man to man cannot but be read with much interest. His thoughts on Jurisprudence are decidedly valuable to the legal profession. His chapter on the Angels is new and interesting, as is, also, that on the Devil.

The author has certainly given us an unbroken chain of connection from the principles of God to the atom he has created. The work cannot fail to be read with interest by all lovers of science. The Doctor has proved himself a philosopher, and Louisville will be proud of him as one of her citizens.
